OVERVIEW & GUIDELINES

The Resolution Copper John Rickus Memorial Scholarship provides financial assistance as a means of encouraging graduating high school seniors to further their education. John Rickus was the former President of Resolution Copper from 2005 to 2008.

STUDENT ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

Applicants must be a high school senior enrolled at Superior High School, Globe High School, Miami High School, San Carlos High School, Apache Junction High School, Ray High School or Hayden High School pursuing higher education at an Arizona learning institution.

Applicants must currently maintain a minimum cumulative 3.0 GPA.

INSTITUTION ELIGIBILITY CRITERIA

Scholarships will only be awarded for full-time enrollment at an accredited two or four-year college, university, business or trade school in Arizona meeting the eligibility criteria below. Proof of full-time enrollment is required.

Eligible institutions must have a physical campus located in Arizona (i.e., no “correspondence” schools) and must meet at least one of the eligibility criteria set forth below:

- A college or university meeting the accreditation requirements of one of the national college or university accrediting bodies.
- A community or junior college or a college preparatory, secondary, trade, technical, or business school accredited by an appropriate governmental agency or state department of education or other reputable agency.

SCHOLARSHIP COMMITTEE

All applications shall be reviewed by a committee comprised of Resolution Copper staff members. All applicants will be notified by mail no later than April 20, 2018.

Resolution Copper is responsible for administering this scholarship including:: determining the number of scholarships, establishing award amounts, final selection of recipients, paying the scholarship award to the university/college, and resolving any disputes that may arise.

SELECTION CRITERIA

Scholarships will be awarded based on the following criteria: Academic achievement (including grade point average, class rank or percentile ranking, ACT/SAT scores or appropriate entrance exams); leadership capabilities, noteworthy achievements, awards and recognition, school, community and/or personal activities, interest in the subject matter, demonstrated potential for future success, recommendations from the school counselor and financial need. A potential recipient need not demonstrate that he/she meets all such criteria and strong consideration will be given to students with a keen interest in the academic areas designated above.

A statement of financial need, as well as a letter of recommendation from the high school principal, teacher or guidance counselor will be required. Financial need considerations may include household income, number of dependent children, and significant family events such as the death of a parent or guardian. Awards will be made without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, disability or other protected classification.

RECIPIENT QUALIFICATIONS

All Recipients must meet and maintain the following eligibility requirements:

- The recipient must enroll as, and at all times remain, a full-time student attending an eligible institution during the entire academic year for which the award is granted.
- The recipient must at all times maintain good academic standing with the eligible institution and not be placed on academic probation.

FORFEITURE OF AWARD

A recipient selected for financial assistance will forfeit the award if he or she:

- Does not enroll as a full time student in the qualified institution for the academic year in which the award is to be effective or after enrollment, withdraws or ceases to be a full time student.

SCHOLARSHIP AMOUNTS

The John Rickus Memorial Scholarship is a one-time grant of $1,000. The scholarships will be for tuition at the designated institution. Checks will be made payable to the institution on behalf of the student upon initial acceptance of such student at such qualified institution.

PAID INTERNSHIPS

In addition to traditional classroom studies, scholarship recipients may be eligible for available paid internships during their summer breaks with Resolution Copper so long as their academic record remains in good standing and the student meets the temporary hiring criteria of Resolution Copper, including testing for substance abuse. Resolution Copper's management will determine pay and positions, if any. Students will be asked to contact the company's Human Resources office at least one month prior to their scheduled break.

APPLICATIONS

Applications are available at the high school guidance counselor's office and on Resolution Copper's website, resolutioncopper.com. Interested applicants may also request an application by sending an email to melissa.rabago@resolutioncopper.com.

This scholarship is established voluntarily and unilaterally by Resolution Copper and may be modified or terminated by Resolution Copper at any time, with advanced notice to participants.

MEDIA CONSENT

Recipients will be required to sign a media release form authorizing Resolution Copper to use photos or videos of scholarship recipients in various media outlets; television, radio, newspapers, internet broadcasts, news releases, newsletters, websites and social media sites.
